

- Name of the Candidate: Prof. Shiv Raj Singh
- Membership Number: 0823/S/09/ML

About the Candidate

Prof. Shiv Raj Singh is a distinguished Professor in the Department of Mathematics at Chaudhary Charan Singh University, Meerut. His research interests encompass mathematical modelling, inventory control, and sustainable supply chain practices. In recognition of his exceptional contributions to higher education, he was honoured with the prestigious Saraswati Award in 2019, the highest accolade given by the Uttar Pradesh state government in the university category.

Prof. Singh is an active member of the Mathematics Curriculum Framework Committee, appointed by the University Grants Commission (UGC), and has previously served as a member of National Curriculum Framework committee. His research career includes the publication of 188 research papers in Scopus/SCI-indexed journals. He has guided more than 25 Ph.D. students.

A highly recognized academic, Prof. Singh has achieved a Vidwan score of 100% and ranks among the top 2% of researchers worldwide according to ResearchGate. He is also the convener of several committees at Chaudhary Charan Singh University, Meerut, and serves as the Coordinator of Vedic Mathematics. He is also served as a members of selection committees.