

MEMBERSHIP OF ORSI

The Operational Research Society of India classified its membership into following five broad categories:

Fellow (Recommended by Council)
Life Member
Senior Member
Institutional Member
Corporate Member

Eligibility Criteria for Membership

The members referred to in the Constitution will be one of the three categories:(a) Individual, (b) Institutional, and (c) Overseas.

Individual Members will be of three types: (a) Fellow, (b) Senior Member, and (c) Life Member
The entry will be as Life member.

(a) Fellow: A Senior Member will be considered for Fellowship by the Central Council of ORSI, if the following conditions are fulfilled:

- (i) S/he is a senior member.
- (ii) S/he should have no financial dues to the Society at the time of his / her nomination.
- (iii) His/her nomination should have been duly proposed and seconded by two Fellows/ Senior Members of ORSI or initiated by the Central Council. Self-nominations does not make one ineligible, but generally not recommended.
- (iv) S/he should have made outstanding contributions towards the promotion and development of Operational Research. The merit of the contributions will be assessed by a committee comprising a Past President as Chairman and the Honorary Secretary as Convener. They are authorized to co-opt two experts (not necessarily members of ORSI). The recommendations of the Committee will be placed at a business session of the Central Council for approval or otherwise. The Committee shall meet in a suitable month before AGM every year.
- (v) His / her Fellowship shall be ratified at the Annual General Meeting, after acceptance by the Central Council.
- (vi) He has served the Society as a member of national council, president of a chapter for at least 3 years.
- (vii) The number of Fellows on the roll of the Society at a point of time will not exceed 10% (ten percent) of the total number of members. This limit does not include those members who have expired. Not more than 3 (three) Senior Members would be awarded Fellowship in a calendar year. The nomination for fellowship will remain valid for 3 (three) years. In case a nomination for a fellow member is considered in 3 year, it can be re-considered after 5 years (or eight years after the year of first application)

(b) Senior Member: All life members holding continuous membership in good standing for the last five years will become Senior Members.

(c) Life Member

A person may be enrolled as Life Member on payment of usual dues if his/her application, submitted in the prescribed membership application form online, is found eligible to become a Member.

(d) Institutional Member/Corporate Member

- (i) All Institutions/Corporate organizations interested in the promotion of Operational Research may enrol themselves as Member in either of the following two categories: i) Corporate Member or (ii) Institutional Member.
- (ii) The Institutional/Corporate Member will be represented by an authorized representative, who will enjoy the similar rights and privileges as enjoyed by an Individual Member.
- (iii) An Institutional Member can become Corporate Member on payment of prescribed fee.
